How Might We Prepare for the Possible Manifestation of Demonic Entities in 2025?

Sixbert SANGWA • November 02, 2024

In the last days, as prophesied in 2 Timothy 3:1-5, perilous times will come. This article explores potential end-time deceptions, focusing on Alice A. Bailey's predictions about a spiritual hierarchy's externalization by 2025. We'll also examine other sources like Benjamin Creme, Rudolf Steiner, and Roger Morneau, linking their claims to Biblical prophecies. The discussion includes the possibility of demons impersonating extraterrestrials to amplify deception and potentially pave the way for the Antichrist. As we approach this critical period, believers must remain vigilant and discerning, recognizing the signs of the times while holding fast to God's Word. Jesus Himself warned about this heightened deception in Matthew 24:24, saying, "For false messiahs and false prophets will arise and perform great signs and wonders to lead astray, if possible, even the elect." Similarly, Paul cautioned in 2 Thessalonians 2:9-10, "The coming of the lawless one is based on Satan's working, with all kinds of false miracles, signs, and wonders, and with every wicked deception among those who are perishing." These verses underscore the importance of spiritual discernment in the face of increasingly sophisticated deceptions in the end times.

Evil angels exist in this world, influencing occult practices and practitioners like Alice A. Bailey. A prominent globalist figure in occult circles, Bailey was associated with the UN and founded Lucifer Publishing Company, later renamed Lucis Trust. She claimed to channel messages directly from Lucifer—Satan as we know him, no longer a bearer of light. Importantly, Bailey's writings often reveal plans within the kingdom of darkness, and her influence has been so significant that many of her ideas, including her ten-point plan, have been implemented by the UN. Bailey was also the first to coin the term "New Age," and many vocabularies used in today's political, economic, social, and religious landscape appear to be drawn from her works. This widespread influence makes her predictions particularly noteworthy.

Alice A. Bailey made a significant prediction for the year 2025. She often spoke about the transition into a "New Age," "New Era," or "Aquarian Age" characterized by global unity, social and political change, and increased spiritual awakening. According to Bailey, this awakening would be guided by spiritual entities and would prepare for her so-called "the Christ's" reappearance in 2025. She emphasized the importance of preparing for these changes through spiritual development and group cooperation.

For example, in her "Externalization of the Hierarchy", Bailey wrote: "In 2025, the date will, in all probability, be set for the first stage of the externalization of the hierarchy." (Bailey,1957, p.281). This prediction, like many of her teachings, appears to unveil the strategies of dark spiritual forces, underscoring the crucial need for believers to remain aware and discerning. Bailey suggests that the Hierarchy is preparing for its externalization, which is expected to culminate around 2025. She describes this period [before 2025] as "The Stage of the Forerunner," a preparatory phase leading to the Hierarchy's public manifestation. According to her, "very great changes will be seen taking place" leading up to 2025 (Bailey,1957). This implies a transformative period for humanity as the Hierarchy becomes increasingly visible and active in the world.

Who is this hierarchy Bailey refers to? In a subsequent quotation, she calls them "the Masters." These Masters of the occult are, of course, Satan and the evil angels beneath him. This aligns with the Bible's description of a hierarchy of evil agencies, with Satan as the prince of this world, as Jesus states in John 12:31. In essence, they represent the true hierarchical ruling elite and power structure of this planet. It's not figures like Klaus Schwab or Bill Gates, but rather the entities that drive the powers that be—those that instigate war, conflict, imperial domination, and tyranny.

Here's what Bailey says again about 2025:"I have made this practical application and this immediate illustration of teaching… because the whole world problem has reached a crisis today and because its clarification will be the outstanding theme of all progress—educational, religious and economic—until 2025"-(Bailey,1957, p.363). Bailey aims to propagate her occult ideology and so-called "progress"—in educational, religious, and economic spheres—until 2025. Remarkably, she pinpointed this date nearly a century ago.

In the same book, "Externalization of the Hierarchy", Bailey predicted what she called a Great Revival and Spiritual Shift by 2025. She describes a "great revival" and spiritual transformation guided by the Hierarchy (p. 530). This revival involves humanity's increased awareness of and alignment with spiritual principles, facilitated by the Hierarchy's influence (p. 531). Bailey stresses the importance of the relationship between the Hierarchy and humanity, noting that as humanity evolves, the Hierarchy will move closer to the physical plane, enabling more direct interaction and guidance (p. 570). She also discusses the development of a closer telepathic connection between the Hierarchy and its disciples, which she deems essential for the spiritual shift expected by 2025 (p. 685). This connection is viewed as crucial for the effective manifestation of the Hierarchy's work on Earth (p. 686).

In her book "Discipleship in the New Age," Bailey outlines propaganda efforts planned for the decades leading up to 2025. She writes: "These… recognitions must be evidenced by humanity and affect human thinking and action if the total destruction of mankind is to be averted. They must form the theme of all the propaganda work to be done during the next few decades—until the year 2025*…. The spread of the Christ consciousness and His recognized Presence with us is not yet attained."*(Bailey, 1955, Vol.2, p.95)

In "The Rays and the Initiations," Bailey suggests that "evil agencies" are working towards the "externalization of the hierarchy." These ruling powers—which the Bible refers to as "rulers and authorities in the heavens" (Ephesians 6:12)—aim to manifest themselves on Earth by 2025. She states this even more explicitly: "It will be possible for the hierarchy to externalize itself and function openly upon the physical plane[….]The Masters will walk openly among men." (Bailey, 1960, Vol 5, p.3 &30). This reiterates her earlier point: these entities will operate openly in the physical world and move freely among humans.

Bailey further reinforced her claim in "The Reappearance of the Christ". Here, she elaborates on her concept of the "World Teacher" or "The Christ," portraying this figure as a spiritual guide destined to lead humanity towards heightened spiritual awareness and unity (Bailey, 1948, pp. 5-7). In Bailey's view, Christ isn't confined to a single historical person but represents the collective consciousness of spiritual evolution (Bailey, 1948, pp. 30-32). Bailey predicts Christ's reappearance around 2025, linking it to the externalization of the Hierarchy and the spiritual revival she describes in her works (Bailey, 1948, pp. 81-83). She envisions this return as ushering in a "new era" of spiritual awakening and guiding humanity through its challenges. This process, according to Bailey, involves fostering a deeper understanding of unity, love, and service (Bailey, 1948, pp. 122-125). She emphasizes that Christ's reappearance will coincide with humanity's readiness to embrace higher spiritual principles and take collective responsibility for steering human evolution (Bailey, 1948, pp. 155-158). Clearly, Bailey's references to a "World Teacher" or "The Christ" allude to the Antichrist—the very antithesis of the true Christ. Moreover, her notion of a "spiritual revival" or "awakening" guided by the hierarchy is nothing more than a euphemism for widespread demonic deception.

Bailey expounds on this revelation in her book "The Destiny of the Nations"(1949 edition), where she discusses the advent of spiritual forces: "The energy of the planetary Logos… will be increasingly felt as men begin to respond to the new vibration during the next two centuries"(Bailey, 1949, p. 97). She describes an impending spiritual awakening: "A great and vital thoughtform is in process of construction upon our planet and within our planetary atmosphere. It is being built by the power of sound, by the magnetic pull of invocation leading to eventual evocation, and by the force of desire-substance, animated by the power of thought"(p. 124). In a similar vein, in "A Treatise on White Magic", Bailey had earlier portrayed the interaction between spiritual entities and humanity: "The Hierarchy of spiritual Lives… are in process of lifting humanity on to a higher turn of the spiral"(Bailey, 1934, p. 519). She forecasts an imminent spiritual transformation: "The next development… will be the conscious recognition by man of his relation to the whole. This will lead him to a recognition of the Hierarchy of Beings who stand between humanity and God"(Bailey, 1934, p. 426).

Bailey isn't the only one to discuss this topic. Benjamin Creme, for instance, championed the idea of "Christ's" reappearance, referring to this figure as "Maitreya." Creme claimed that Maitreya was already present in the world, poised to reveal himself publicly during a global crisis (Creme, 1990, pp. 18-20). While Creme emphasized Maitreya's imminent presence and the advent of the "World Teacher", he didn't link these events specifically to 2025. Instead, he focused on humanity's readiness for a spiritual leader, highlighting the world's current state as conducive to such a revelation (Creme, 2007, pp. 45-47). This echoes Bailey's words exactly. Creme's reference to Maitreya being already in the world aligns with the Scriptural warning in 1 John 4:3 that "every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you have heard is coming and is already in the world now." Additionally, the Bible also indicates that the Antichrist will finally incarnate as the man of lawlessness, as described in 2 Thessalonians 2:3-4'

Rudolf Steiner, the founder of anthroposophy, also discussed the evolution of human consciousness and spiritual beings' role in guiding humanity. He predicted significant spiritual events in the early 21st century, aligning with Bailey's vision of spiritual awakening (Steiner, 1910, p. 45). However, Steiner didn't specify 2025, focusing instead on the gradual evolution of consciousness over time.

Many Theosophical writers have echoed Bailey's ideas about "Christ's reappearance" and "spiritual hierarchies." Helena Blavatsky (1888, p. 612) and Annie Besant (1912, p. 78) laid the groundwork for these concepts. J. Krishnamurti, though distancing himself from organized spiritual movements, shared Bailey's emphasis on personal responsibility and awakening. His early association with the Theosophical Society influenced his teachings on spiritual awakening and individual transformation (Krishnamurti, 1954, p. 23). Dane Rudhyar, an influential astrologer and philosopher, explored the evolution of consciousness and humanity's spiritual awakening. His writings reflect ideas similar to Bailey's predictions about an impending transformation in human awareness (Rudhyar, 1970, p. 156).

Similarly, Nancy Seifer, a student of Alice Bailey's teachings and a prominent figure in the Lucis Trust organization, expanded on Bailey's ideas about spiritual evolution. In her 2006 article Disciples and the Year of 2025, Seifer echoed Bailey's emphasis on the significance of 2025. She stated that in the year 2025, "the truth must be stepped down and adapted in such a way that the advanced minds and the inquiring minds of the masses may have the opportunity to measure their receptivity". This aligns closely with Bailey's predictions about a spiritual awakening and the externalization of the hierarchy around this time.

Having learned about demons' plans to incarnate in physical entities for major end-time deceptions, one might wonder how this could become a reality. Looking at current trends, three possibilities emerge. With advances in technology and AI-humanoid robotics, demons could potentially use these as channels (Kingsnorth, 2024). Another possibility is that demons might possess or reanimate deceased bodies, as suggested by occultist Aleister Crowley's teachings on magick and alchemy (Crowley, 2023). This idea aligns with end-time rituals and the alleged agenda to usurp God's throne, as discussed in depth by researchers of occult practices. However, the most likely scenario involves aliens. Propaganda about extraterrestrial visitors has been circulating to prepare humanity for their supposed arrival. For example, NASA enlisted religious scholars to study how humanity might react to the discovery of extraterrestrial life, preparing humanity for potential alien contact (NASA, 2021; Yingling & Yingling,2024). It's important to note that these "aliens" are nothing more than demons in disguise, attempting to deceive humanity on a grand scale (Dr Heiser, 2023; GotQuestions.org, n.d.). Who could be behind potential alien's deceptions?

Those driving the alien propaganda are likely suspects. For instance, in 2021, the US government released a report on Unidentified Aerial Phenomena (UAP), acknowledging unexplained sightings without confirming extraterrestrial origins (Office of the Director of National Intelligence, 2021). More recently, when questioned about extraterrestrials in relation to UAPs, a Pentagon official stated, "I haven't ruled anything out"(BBC, 2021). Even Pope Francis chimed in, declaring that if aliens—"little green creatures"—were to visit Earth, he would baptize them (Abby Ohlheiser, 2024; Samantha Grossman, 2024). Therefore, the question of who could be behind potential alien deceptions is complex and multifaceted, involving spiritual, psychological, governmental, and extraterrestrial dimensions. Whatever the case, these developments beg a crucial question: Could a grand alien deception—a staged extraterrestrial revelation—be part of the prophesied end-times satanic deceptions?

Before his dramatic conversion to Christianity, Roger Morneau, a French Canadian, was initiated into a satanic secret society. Before his death, he gave several lengthy interviews. In one of the lesser-known segments, Morneau revealed Satan's alleged plan—as told to him by the high priest of the secret society. According to Morneau, Satan is preparing his demons to impersonate beings from other worlds. These entities will warn of impending calamities and destruction on Earth, using fear to manipulate humanity into following their deceptive instructions.

Roger Morneau, a former member of a satanic secret society, recounted information he received directly from the high priest during his initiation.

> "One of the major deceptions of the last days, and the priest told us, we talked quite a while, and then he said: 'could I have a bit more your time? I want to do something very fascinating. This is the grand plan. The master's grand plan for harvesting the nations, for harvesting the multitudes of the earth into his cause, just before the close of the Great Controversy between the forces of good and evil.' So, we continued then after we expressed ourselves that we're deeply interested to know more about the activities of spirits, and he said: 'It's gonna be done in a unique manner. This grand plan, he says, it's gonna take people, people are gonna eat the stuff because it says spirits. Demon spirits will declare themselves to be inhabitants of far distant planets in the galaxies that are coming to warn the inhabitants of planet, earth, of the impending destruction of the planet, unless something seriously properly is done to avoid it'" (Morneau, n.d., featured in this video)

According to these sources, 2025 is purportedly the target date for the "hierarchy" to reveal itself. They are allegedly using propaganda to prepare for this externalization. As Roger Morneau claimed, the "Grand Master plan" involves a staged alien appearance, with entities declaring themselves to be from other worlds. However, these would not be actual extraterrestrials, but rather demons or fallen angels masquerading as aliens. While we shouldn't set a definitive date, this appears to be their goal, as stated in their own sources.

Scripture prophesied this event in Revelation 9:1-12. The fifth trumpet, which lies ahead, describes the opening of the abyss. From it will emerge smoke (representing evil spirits) and locusts (human-looking demons) led by the angel of the Abyss (Satan), who will orchestrate final deceptions. Importantly, these locusts are instructed to harm only those who don't have God's seal (the Holy Spirit) on their foreheads, highlighting the protection afforded to true believers. The Bible names the leader of these locusts Abaddon in Hebrew or Apollyon in Greek. This serves as a biblical warning against the Antichrist. Interestingly, in Greek mythology, Zeus's son Apollo could be seen as the opposite of Christ. Brothers and sisters, be vigilant against this end-time demonic deception, which may ultimately lead humanity to embrace the Antichrist, but take comfort in the protection promised to those sealed by God.

As we approach the end of the current age, it's crucial to understand that the Rapture precedes the Antichrist's reign (2 Thessalonians 2:6-8). Even the forces of darkness acknowledge the imminent arrival of Jesus Christ's Kingdom. In these final moments, Satan and his followers are intensifying their efforts to deceive as many people as possible, aiming to ensure a multitude will join them in eternal damnation. Bailey (1948, p.28) herself affirmed that "During this millennium, Satan or the principle of evil will be bound or imprisoned, and there will be a new heaven and new earth". She elaborates on this concept in subsequent pages:

> Another great Approach of divinity and another spiritual revelation are now possible. A new revelation is hovering over mankind and the One Who will bring it and implement it is drawing steadily nearer to us. What this great approach will bring to mankind, we do not yet know. It will surely bring us as definite results as did all the earlier revelations and the missions of Those Who came in response to humanity's earlier demands. The World War has purified mankind. A new heaven and a new earth are on their way. What does the orthodox theologian and churchman mean when he uses the words "a new heaven"? May these words not signify something entirely new and a new conception as to the world of spiritual realities? May not the Coming One bring us a new revelation as to the very nature of God Himself? Do we yet know all that can be known about God? If so, God is very limited. (Bailey, 1948,p.65)

Despite the rapidly changing trends, few Christians recognize these prophetic fulfillments. As 2025 approaches, it appears the forces of darkness have orchestrated a grand plan for exceptional end-times deceptions. This year could herald the beginning of what Jesus, referring to His return, called "a time of difficulty unparalleled since the world's creation." Current engineered crises seem to be paving the way for the Antichrist, who may soon emerge as a supposed messiah and extraordinary problem-solver. Are we prepared for this potential reality? Let us pray for discernment and strength.

Roger Morneau is still involved in a Cult called the Seventh-day Adventist church which is Satanic at its core so I wouldn't take anything he says and put my faith in it.
